Sorry about that. The email was to have you contact Rodriguez so he can assign a supervisor to coordinate with you. Mike

Sir,

All storage areas were checked by Frank and Juan and they did not find any tablecloths.

Any word on the email I sent about the Newton Division?

Hi Brian, I asked your people to see if the Business Booster printed tablecloths were stored in your store room. We found the Boosters (2) Pop-Ups there. I have not heard anything. Can you check for me. Thanks, Mike
